To the Hall of Fame for Great Americans
2 Washington Square Village
New York, N.Y.

Dear Sirs,

On behalf of the Liberal Religious Women of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Medford, Massachusetts, I urge the endorsement and election to the Hall of Fame for Great Americans of CLARA BARTON, founder of the American Red Cross, initiator of the first public school system in New Jersey, Civil War Nurse and individually responsible for the locating 20,000 missing Union soldiers after that war, and the recipient of 25 decorations and numerous citations for her heroic work on European battlefields and for her efforts to alleviate the famine and need in European and Asian nations.

Most sincerely yours,

Miriam F. DeWolfe
